

St Aidan's & St John Fisher Associated Sixth Form

St Aidan's Student Weekly Notices Week (B) commencing 11 June 2018

Contents

Enrichment, Employability, Pastoral (EEP)
Careers Information
General Information

EEP

EEP has finished for this academic year. During EEP lessons, you need to remain on the school site and do independent study.

All Maths Students P4 & P5 – Wednesday 13 June

All students who are studying Maths are required to attend both of the following talks in the Main Hall at SJF
Period 4 - 13.35

- The Mathematics of Sex and Drugs and Rock and Roll – by Prof Alastair Rucklidge

Period 5 - 14.35

- The Maths that Makes the Modern World – by Dr Richard Elwes

Careers Information

Work Experience at EY

EY are offering a weeks work experience specialising in Tax at their Business Academy in Leeds during July. For more details, please see

<https://eygbl.referrals.selectminds.com/student-opportunities/jobs/2018-business-academy-july-2018-leeds-43902>

Get into Business and Law Events

The University of Law in Leeds are offering taster days in Business (4 July) and Law (11 July). For more information and to book a place please go to <https://cc.law.ac.uk/Personal/Events/?et=38> – you will need to scroll down the event type box.

York St John University summer residential courses

The university is holding a 4 day/3 night free residential event from 10 to 13 July inclusive. There will be the opportunity to attend academic lectures and sample university life. The courses available include Biomedical Science, Business, Psychology, Crime and Society, Children, Young People and Education. For more information and to book a place please contact the Careers Department ASAP. Deadline extended to 15 June

Interested in Accountancy?

First Intuition in Leeds are holding an Accountancy Academy on 18 and 19 July. This is an ideal opportunity to find out more about how to apply for careers in accountancy. To book a place please go to <https://zq345-2cacef.pages.infusionsoft.net/> <https://outlook.office.com/owa/projection.aspx>

General Information

Oxford and Cambridge Open Days meeting

There will be a trip meeting for the Oxford and Cambridge Open Days on Tuesday 12 June at 12.45 in the New Chapel. Important information about these trips will be handed out, so if you are going then it is important that you attend. Any questions see either Dr Murray or Dr Langstaff.

Peer Listening

The Peer Listening training sessions are now up in the Sixth Form café. The first date is Wednesday 13 June P4 so please be prompt at checking your training session. I have also put a poster in each form folder. It is vital you attend this training in order to be able to commence peer listening in September. If there are any issues with the date you have been assigned, please come and see Miss Waters as soon as possible.

St Aidan's & St John Fisher Associated Sixth Form

Debating Club

Due to the Oxbridge trip meeting, debating has, regrettably, been cancelled this week.

Iceland Trip

The meeting for parents and students for the Iceland trip will take place on Thursday 14 June at 18:00-19:00 in the New Chapel. Please can parents and students attend.

Year 12 Attendance Records

Please make sure that you have reviewed any unauthorised absences. You will not be able to amend these after the end of this academic year. We are frequently asked to complete references for employment/courses/gap year opportunities/college /UCAS. We would therefore urge ALL students to ensure that there are no unauthorised absences on their school records. The Sixth Form Office are more than happy to print out individual attendance data on request.

Dress code

Please ensure you adhere to the Sixth Form dress code and are wearing smart business dress and your lanyard at all times.

Library and Study Centre

Please can we remind all students that food and drink should not be taken into the Library or the Study Centre.

Stray

We have had further concerns from local residents about litter on the Stray. Please make sure that you clear all litter away if you go onto the Stray at lunchtime.

Thank you