

St Aidan's Church of England High School Library
Quick Reads

Easy to pick up, hard to put down

A Boy and a Bear in a boat – Stormy seas, monsters and stale sandwiches by David Shelton

Charlie Merrick's Misfits in Fouls, Friends and Football – unlikely journey to football fame by Dave Cousins

Dragons at Crumbling Castle – 14 hilarious short stories by Terry Pratchett

The Eye of the Wolf by D Pennac - a magical and mysterious tale

Football Academy – Jake loves football and dreams of being a professional player, by Tom Palmer

Football Shorts – big match writing from the best in the game by various authors

Ghost Stadium – spooky football story by Tom Palmer

The Great Fire – historical adventure by Ann Turnbull

Heartbeat by Sharon Creech - families and being at peace with ourselves

Horrible History Series

Ninja: Death Touch – by Chris Bradford

The Parent Agency – pick your perfect Mum and Dad by David Baddiel

My Story Series – historical diaries on a variety of topics

The Racehorse Who Wouldn't Gallop by Clare Balding – a funny animal story

Rascal: Tramp 1 Lost in the caves, one brave dog's journey home by C Cooper

Respect: the Walter Tull story, an amazing football/WW1 story by M Magorian

Robot Girl – how would you feel if your dad created a monster? By M Blackman

Tale of a tail – strange goings on in Prodigy Street by Margaret Mahy

War Dog – from the author of Agent 21 Chris Ryan

Warning! Aliens are invading the school – madness and unstoppable laughter, by Dinah Capparucci

The Weight of Water by Sarah Crossan - moving story of refugees

The World's Worst Children – a collection of mischievous tales by David Walliams

PTO

Or why not try reading a Graphic Novel or Manga (Japanese Graphic Novels)?

Classical Comics – classic novels/plays with pictures!

Miki Falls 1 – series of 4 by Mark Crilley

The Recruit: Cherub 1 – popular adventure series by Robert Muchamore

Silverfin: Young James Bond 1 – by Charlie Higson

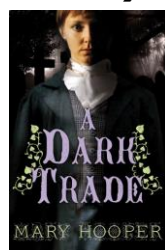

Stormbreaker: Alex Rider 1 – by Anthony Horowitz

Naruto – ninja adventure by Masashi Kishimoto

Dragonball – by Akira Toriyama, archenemies unite to save the world

Also: see the Short Story section and the Quick Read section – great for reluctant readers and those who struggle to read (look out for the books published by Barrington Stokes)

Please ask Mrs Roth if you need help finding a good book to borrow 2018

