

Collective Worship

As we start this act of collective worship, you are invited to take a moment and pause to think about the life and teaching of St. Aidan.

The first missionaries to Northumbria gave up and described the people here as 'impossible' and 'pig-headed'. Aidan was different; he was courageous and determined. Aidan treated everyone as though they were important. He was always kind and considerate.

How can you demonstrate the virtues of courage, determination and kindness today?
