National Careers Week 2024

Join The Celebration

Recent research from the Careers and Enterprise Company has once again highlighted the importance of quality careers education in helping young people to become more career ready and achieve positive destinations after Sixth Form, something which is celebrated every year during National Careers Week.

As part of our ongoing careers programme designed to raise your awareness of the wide range of different career and study opportunities that are available we would like to share the following National Careers Week resource to support your ongoing research:
